

This is to express my opinion that it would be very dangerous to increase the per cent ownership which a given broadcast company may have in a given market. This will (a) reduce the amount of coverage of local issues; and (b) increase the danger of stifling coverage on sensitive topics - if you have a lot of stations, the cowardly choices on what to cover will have to be made one at a time!